

CORPORATE CHALLENGE

2008 Corporate Gingerbread Winner
Busch's, Saline

2009 Gingerbread Contest
Saline Midnight Madness Craft Show
December 4, 2009.
And how sweet it is! Tis the season and the sweet smell of gingerbread fills the air at the 2009 Moonlight Madness Craft Show on December 4, 2009, (5-11 p.m.) The Gingerbread Gallery will feature gingerbread "architects" competing with their hand-built creations by CORPORATE COMPETITORS. Benny's Bakery, Busch's, Country Market, Manchester Bakery and Sweet Baker have issued the challenge and invite any local business/corporation to compete and be a part of this upcoming event.

Selection of the winning creations will be based on public cast of votes using coins. Each penny (1 cent) will count as a vote (i.e. quarter = 25 votes). Winners will be announced on Monday, December 7, at www.salineshows.com The donations will be a fundraiser for the Saline Area Schools Historic Preservation Foundation/Weber-Blaess One-Room School project 501©3.

Gingerbread houses will be available for display in your business after the show.

Winner will receive a gingerbread trophy for their possession for the 2010 calendar year and return it for 2010 Contest in December. Presently the 2008 winner trophy is at Busch's on Michigan Avenue in Saline.

We also offer to all participants an opportunity to advertise through the show by demonstrating for 45 minutes in the cafeteria of the show to the general public. Over 3,500 customers will visit during the show, so by participating in this activity and demonstrating a product of your choice at an overhead mirrored table with comfortable seating for the customers, you will be advertising your business. We will confirm your participation in this activity to prevent repeats. In 2008, the demonstrations included gingerbread house decorating, fondant making, and cookie decorating. This is optional.

As this is a fundraiser for Weber-Blaess, we also have a silent auction and request a donation for this. This can be a smaller gingerbread house or any other holiday product (cake, pie, cookies).

Please see attached information sheet with further information.

Please notify Cheryl Hoeft of your decision regarding this contest. We hope you are willing to participate.
